Jornada por la Competencia 2022 “Financial Sector in Mexico: Challenges and Opportunities”

Mexico City, October 21, 2022.- The Federal Economic Competition Commission (Cofece or Commission) will hold the Jornada por la Competencia (Competition Day), a space dedicated to promoting the benefits of economic competition in the markets and to reflect, together with experts, about the challenges faced by the authorities in various sectors

The 2022 edition, to be held on October 26, will have as its theme "Financial Sector in Mexico: Challenges and Opportunities", which will analyze the areas of opportunity that regulators, economic agents, academia and Cofece envision for the near future, as well as the effectiveness of the measures undertaken to date.

The Jornada will have three sessions, in the form of panels, which will seek to trigger the exchange of ideas between representatives of the Bank of Mexico, the National Banking and Securities Commission, the Ministry of Finance and Public Credit, the National Commission of the Retirement Savings System, the Mexican Association of Retirement Fund Managers, civil society organizations, financial institutions, as well as academics and international experts on three priority topics: i) Banking fees and financial sector regulation; ii) Retirement savings system, and; iii) Fintech.

In addition, we will have the participation of Frédéric Jenny, Chairman of the Competition Committee of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), who will give the lecture "Economic competition in the financial sector: challenges and opportunities". Furthermore, Cristina Cafarra, Director of Keystone Group Europe and renowned international expert, will participate in the panel about competition and Fintech.

We invite you to follow the live webcast of the Jornada at: <https://www.cofece.mx/jornada-por-la-competencia-2022/>.
