

Cofece submits for public consultation its draft amendment to the Regulatory Provisions on the Use of Electronic Means

- The purpose of the Regulatory Provisions is to establish the bases for the implementation, use and management of Electronic Means in the procedures and proceedings that are initiated or processed before Cofece, in order to facilitate their handling.
- The consultation opened on July 3 and will be open until July 22, 2023.

Mexico City, July 5, 2023.- The Federal Economic Competition Commission (Cofece or Commission) initiated the public consultation of its Draft Amendment to the Regulatory Provisions on the Use of Electronic Means in order to facilitate the processing of proceedings before the Commission through the use of the Electronic Procedures System.

It is important for the Commission to know the opinion of economic agents, the private sector and society in general. Those interested can analyze the document available, in Spanish, at: Draft Amendment to the Regulatory Provisions on the Use of Electronic Means before Cofece and express their opinion and comments via e-mail: consulta-publica1@cofece.mx; or directly at the Filing Office of Cofece, located at Avenida Revolución 725, first floor, Santa María Nonoalco, Benito Juárez, postal code 03700, Mexico City.

The Commission appreciates the contributions aimed at improving regulatory provisions, promoting a culture of economic competition, and facilitating its application in favor of economic agents, consumers, and Mexican families.

– 000 –

MORE COMPETITION FOR A STRONGER MEXICO

The Federal Economic Competition Commission safeguards competition and free market access.

Through its work, it seeks better conditions for consumers, that more services are supplied with higher quality and that there is a “level-playing-field” for companies.